

June 13
You Are Invited to an Open House about
Beck's Lake
South Bend, Indiana

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency along with the Indiana Department of Environmental Management, and other environmental and health officials will be holding availability sessions June 13 to discuss the recent proposal of the Beck's Lake site to the Superfund list. EPA will provide information about the site and discuss community concerns. These sessions will enable interested people to meet one-on-one with officials. No formal presentation will be made so the public is welcome any time during the designated time periods.

Thursday, June 13, 1-4 p.m. and 5-8 p.m.
Charles Black Sr. Recreation Center
3419 W. Washington St.
South Bend, Indiana

To learn more about the Beck's Lake site, visit www.epa.gov/region5/sites/beckslake/. For questions, comments, or to make special accommodations at the open houses, you may contact EPA Project Manager Owen Thompson at 312-886-4843 or thompson.owen@epa.gov, or EPA Community Involvement Coordinator Janet Pope at 312-353-0628 or pope.janet@epa.gov.